

Susan Tumlin

Susan began dancing after being inspired first, by a ceilidh she attended during the annual Mull of Kintyre Music Festival in Campbeltown, Scotland in August, 2004, and secondly, discovering there was a nearby class in Marietta, Georgia at the Stone Mountain Highland Games. She and husband, Lewis joined the Marietta class in February, 2005 and have been active dancers ever since, attending monthly socials, workshops, and summer schools. Encouraged to obtain her certificate while attending Thistle School, she passed Part 1 in 2015 and achieved her full certificate in 2018 at TAC in Minneapolis. Susan teaches classes in her home town of Cartersville and co-teaches the Marietta class. She has taught classes at Thistle School and workshops in Gainesville, Florida and Cumming, Georgia. She currently serves as the President of the board for the newly formed Blue Ridge Scottish Dance School.
